Wild Lights Returns to the Detroit Zoo on Nov. 21

Glowing animals and a field of dancing lights open after dark

The Detroit Zoo is ready to flip the switch on the holidays. Wild Lights opens Saturday, Nov. 21, and runs on select nights through Jan. 3 at the zoo in Royal Oak.

Gates open at 5 p.m. Visitors can wander past glowing animal sculptures, explore the Enchanted Rainforest and watch the Field of Lights twinkle in time. The Erb Discovery Trails glow too, with glowing swings and a light-up teeter-totter.

Timed tickets start at $17, with 10 percent off for members. The zoo is closed Dec. 24, Dec. 25 and Jan. 1, so check detroitzoo.org to pick a night.

Sesame Street Turns 57 Today

On Nov. 10, 1969, Sesame Street appeared on television for the first time. Big Bird, Bert, Ernie and Kermit taught letters and numbers with songs and silly sketches. It is one of the longest-running kids' shows ever.

WORD OF THE DAY

marvel verb

to be filled with wonder and amazement
"We marvel at the glowing lights."

Free Costumes for Kids

Christophe Waggoner of Texas began collecting Halloween costumes in 2017 for kids whose families could not afford them. Since then he has given away more than 8,000 costumes, and he expected to hand out about 4,000 more this Halloween so more kids could join the fun.

Daily Joke

What do you call a snowman in July? A puddle! (Ba-dum-chh!)

Fun Fact

A snow leopard can leap about 50 feet in one jump.
