Why do pumpkins sit on people's porches? They have no hands to knock on the door! (Ba-dum-chh!)

A Pumpkin Heavier Than a Small Car Breaks the World Record

Ron Wallace's gourd is the first ever to top 3,000 pounds

A pumpkin grown in Rhode Island weighed 3,156 pounds, and Guinness World Records says it is the heaviest ever. It is the first pumpkin to go past 3,000 pounds, about as heavy as a small car!

Ron Wallace, a 60-year-old grower from Coventry, brought his giant to a weigh-off in Warren on Oct. 10. It beat a record set a week earlier, almost 2,857 pounds.

This was Mr. Wallace's first year growing in a greenhouse. It is his third world record, and he won $3,500.

Tech Corner: What Are Hydrogels?

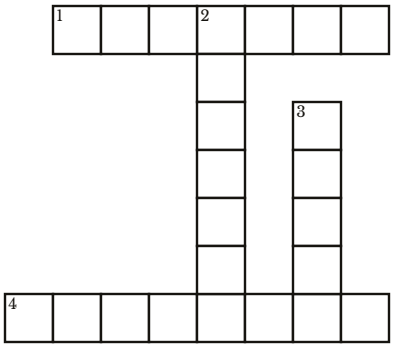

Hydrogels are squishy materials that soak up water like a sponge and let it go later. Jell-O is one, and so are some contact lenses. Engineers use them in soil to save water.
