The Shapiros Have Been Boo'ed!

A sneaky Halloween visitor was caught on the doorbell camera, and the Scoop has a suspect

Somebody crept up to the Shapiro house with a spooky surprise: the Shapiros have been Boo'ed! Being Boo'ed is a Halloween tradition. A secret visitor leaves treats at a neighbor's door, often with a sign that says "You've been Boo'ed!", and then tiptoes away before anyone sees.

But this visitor was not quite sneaky enough. The doorbell camera snapped the picture you see here. After a careful investigation, the Scoop has one prime suspect: Madeline Minken. Take a close look at the photo. Does that look like a booer to you?

Getting Boo'ed comes with a job. A family that gets Boo'ed keeps the fun going by secretly Boo-ing someone else, so the treats travel around the neighborhood all the way to Halloween. Who will the Shapiros Boo next? Whoever it is had better watch out for doorbell cameras!
